Hello Hospitality, Recreation & Tourism Management Student!

Welcome to the SDSU Payne School of HTM! We are delighted that you have chosen one of our majors for your college path and want to ensure that your HTM experience is the very best that it can be. This requires you to take ownership of that experience, but also be open to coaching and mentoring as you continue your journey with us.

The pandemic has had a terrible short-term impact on our professions but there already signs of improvements. We are 100% certain things will be strong by the time you graduate. Following are some things for you to contemplate:

First and foremost, share your passion for the industry with us. You are joining a wonderful major. Whether you decide to you want to work in a restaurant, own a hotel, work in parks or recreation, manage a tribal casino, plan events, or be in a job that allows you to explore hospitality & tourism, you have found the right place at SDSU.

Ask a lot of questions. We will have numerous executives visiting our campus and our school. These executives are choosing to be here because they care greatly about your education and want you to be successful in whatever path you choose.

Work in the industry. While you may love the job that you have now, nothing will truly prepare you for a job in hospitality than an actual position in one. Christina Jeffries, Internship & Placement Director, is here to help you and provide part-time, seasonal, and internship placement opportunities for you. This is one of the best ways to figure out which path is best for you. ((And yes, we are finding jobs…)

Show up. This is the key to being successful in this school. When you show up, be engaged, be professional, and represent your school well. This is much harder to do on a Zoom call but we will teach you! HTM at SDSU is all about going above and beyond...

As you enjoy each of the opportunities that have been provided to you; please note that none of them would be possible without the philanthropic support that we receive from our community partners, our alumni, our parents, our friends and you. We will ask you to give back the same way that students who have walked the halls previously have done.

Again, welcome to a wonderful School! Please know that the faculty, staff, and I are here as resources for you.

My best,

Carl Winston
Director
