This program is an advanced introduction to the theatre history and contemporary methodologies, mythologies, and practices of ancient Greek theatre, dance, and music studied through both a historical and contemporary lens. During this three-week, immersive trip that includes excursions to significant sites, students are introduced to new forms of creative vocal and physical training while learning about Greece and its enormous contribution to Western Civilization.

Date: July 5-27, 2020
Location: Hydra, Delphi, and Athens, Greece
Course: THEA 499: World Theatre, Greece Special Topics 3-unit course
Faculty: Dr. Shelley Orr: morr@sdsu.edu; Dr. Katie Turner: laura.turner@sdsu.edu

Information Session

Monday, February 10, 12:00-1:00pm, Dramatic Arts Building, room 221
Friday, February 21, 10:00-11:00am, Dramatic Arts Building, room 101

Study Abroad Fair February 4th
Applications Open February 7th